CLAUDINE ARRIVES

The steamer Claudine had a rough trip, as may be seen from the followport:

"On Sunday, January 6, we landed all Hawaii mails and passengers at Hilo, it being too rough to effect a landing at Laupahoehoe. On Monday we took mails from Hilo and Laupa hochoe, discharging freight at Kipa hulu and Hana on Tuesday. On Wednesday we left Hana for Honolulu via Huelo, Kahulul and Lahaina, arriving Thursday at 5:30 a. m. "We experienced a heavy northwest swell during the trip and were unable to land at Nahiku. We made an at tempt to land at Huelo but had to give it up after getting a boat ashore with a raft of lumber. We got the boat off without damage, leaving the raft to be hauled upon the beach.

WAHIAWA DAM FILLED

The Wahlawa dam is almost filled. there having been about 76 feet of water in it all this year. The dam can hold back water to the height of eighty feet, but ever since it rose to its great est height of 76.5 feet water has constantly been let out, although no chusetts, in the trouble is anticipated, even if it should rise and flow over the spillway. The inflow from the tributary streams is keeping the water at 76 feet in spite of its being let out.

Wahiawa stock rose a couplé of Wahlawa stock rose a couple of points today. Brokers believe that the rise was caused mainly by the fact that the Wahlawa as well as the other. that the Wahiawa, as well as the other that the Wahiawa, as well as the other reservoirs on the plantation, have been Castle & Cooke, saving in pumping expenses.
